Master Murtha Entertained at Rabbit Supper.

Master F. P. Murtha of 445 North Main street delightfully entertained twenty-five of his found friends at a rabbit supper Tuesday evening. After supper many games were played. In the squirrel hunt Camelia Healey received the first prize, in the thimble race Jerry Downey came first, having 24 beads in the net. After enjoying a social hour and music, all departed wishing Master Murtha many happy returns, saying they would be deligated for hunting time to come again soon.

Notes.

ter a few days' visit in Hartford.

Mrs. Mary E. Shepard of Danielson was the guest of her sister, Mrs.
Charles Card of Twelfth street, over Sunday.

All arrangements have been completed for the mock trial to be given in Union hall by members of St. Andrew's parish. Those who take the parts have been drilling regularly for weeks and have attained a smoothness that is new and has a remarkably pleasing effect.

A team-wagon, owned by the Pomeroy company of Taftville, and loaded high with bundles of cloth, collapsed on North Main street above the Marguerite block Tuesday afternoon about 4 o'clock, when it was lost and a hind wheel came off. The driver was somewhat surprised and lost no time in getting out of the wreck. Some of the bundles that tumbled on were carried in by other teams, and after the lost nut was found the wheel was put on.

CARD PLAYING

Dr. Stough Postpones Talk on Dancing to Reinforce Words of Previous Night—Evangelists to be Associated

Tuesday in the union evangelistic campaign was a day when meetings were held in several sections of the city, all being largely attended and of much interest. In the afternoon Dr.
Stough and Mr. Spooner conducted a meeting at the First Congregational church, Norwich town, while Rev. Mr.
Cunningham and Mr. Herring conducted a service at Trinity Methodist Episcopal church. The evening service at the Central Baptist church, where all the evening meetings are to be held, was a success and the church was filled with a congregation of about 100 people.

One announcement of particular importance made by Dr. Stough at the evening meeting was that henceforth Rev. Mr. Cunningham and himself would be associated in evangelistic effort for future engagements this session anywhere else, but of these three where Dr. Stough is to conduct a campaign. The announcement was received with a burst of applause from the congregation, which Dr. Stough said was very gratifying to him, as it indicated their approval of the arrangement. Rev. Mr. Cunningham came here from New Bedford as the conductor for this series of meetings, but in the interim Rev. Dr. Stough was called home by the death of his son he assumed the leadership of the meetings, conducting them with such marked power and persuasiveness that the message he had to give as to win a warm place in the hearts of the local people, who applied to him their feeling that the association of these two preachers would be an assurance of effective Christian service under God's help.

After the evening service had been opened by Mr. Spooner conducting an inspiring praise service with the chorus choir and the help of Rev. Mr. Cunningham's cornet, Dr. Stough departed from his announced programme by taking up again the subject of card playing, which he had treated on Monday evening.

Dr. Stough reinforced his words of the evening before upon the evil influence of card playing by reading the letter of a college educated ex-convict who had shot a man dead over a game of cards. This convict wrote this letter in the Cambridge meetings. Dr.
Stough also showed the pictures of three boys whose mother argued that she would teach them to play cards at home so that they might not want to play anywhere else, but of the three one became a staggering drunkard, the other a gambler, and the mother saw the third put on trial for murder. As for his own boy, said Dr. Stough, he should never say that they touched their first card in their father's house, but rather that they were taught to play cards at home, and that he was less on this point the picture of a man.

In the announcements, the evangelist called special attention to the "Sunset service" this afternoon at the Central Baptist church, when seats in the center of the church will be reserved for aged people and their friends. Mr. Spooner and Mr. Herring will sing old songs, and all who can loan or furnish conveyances to bring the aged people to the service are assured that they will be most welcomed. Admission will be by ticket, which shall be some article to eat or wear, and these are all to be distributed in the city on Thursday under direction of the United Workers by request of Dr. Stough. Thursday is to be the day of refreshment when everyone is to do something to make somebody else happy and the afternoon service is to be the "Second Congregational church."

Requests for Prayers.
After 25 requests for prayer had been read, Rev. C. H. Hicketts offered prayer and Mr. Herring sang with fine expression the solo, "Why Not Say Yes Tonight."

A verse from the book of Amos, "Because I will do this unto thee, O Israel, prepare to meet thy God," was the text for Dr. Stough's sermon, full of the solemn warning of the need of preparing to meet God. It is the duty of us who are going to meet God, as that we shall die, he said, and the terror of death inspired in the minds of some of our audience of the need of preparation. Their thoughts of God and heaven are also a proof of it, for

MOVING PICTURE PARTY
AT THE BREED THEATER
Handsome Bouquet of Cut Flowers Presented Miss Wolcott.

A party of merry friends and admirers of Miss Florence Wolcott, the popular soloist at the Breed theater, formed a moving picture party and attended the Breed in a body Tuesday evening, to convey to her a suitable recognition of her great ability, and at the close of her well-rendered concert song, they presented her with a superb bouquet of cut flowers, which both surprised and delighted her.

She has made many friends in her short stay in town, and the musical people are of one opinion of the great talent to be one of the best singers ever heard in a picture house.

After the concert, she remained until after the close of the performance to personally greet Miss Wolcott, who was profuse in her thanks for the delicate attention.

SIXTY DAYS AND COSTS.
Sentence Given Alice Smith in the City Court—Italian Boy Again in Trouble.

In the city court on Tuesday morning Alice Smith was sentenced to jail for sixty days and taxed the costs, amounting to $30.75, for stealing part of the sum of $50 from Courtland Simpson, a waiter, on Saturday night in this city. She had desired a chance to work and pay back the money which she received. She felt that over the sentence and declares it will be a lesson to her. She says she has a mother, brothers and sisters who are reputable people and she wants the facts kept from them. She says she had been married but her husband left her because of a St. Louis college student a number of years ago.
Upon the complaint of State Agent Simmons, John Foley and Sebastian Malorana were presented before the city court charged with not sending their children to school. Fines of $1 and costs were imposed.
Michael D'Alin was charged with striking a boy and had his case continued until today. The accused boy is the same one who shot James Franklin in the leg a number of weeks ago.

G. P. Peckham III.
George P. Peckham, formerly physical director at the M. C. A., is now ill at his home in Newport, R. I., with a severe case of nervous prostration. This has caused him to resign his position which took at the beginning of the fall season with the Germantown Y. M. C. A.

Brought from Worcester.
On Tuesday evening a notable Beebe brought Peter Yabum here from Worcester to be locked up for the night on the charge of stealing goods in Norwich, where he will be given a trial.

they have not lived here to be ready for the following theme: "The hour is coming when you will take your last journey alone, provided you have not prepared to meet your God."

Then he prepared you? To the cry of the need of man comes the answering shout of courage and hope to every poor, weak and sinful soul. He that believeth on me, though he die yet shall he live, and he that believeth on me shall never die. The Savior to redeem us from our sins here and now with a power that will keep a man in conquering holiness and the last lead us through the valley of the shadow of death until we reach our Father's side. How shall you prepare to meet your God? Yield your heart to him and trust him tonight.

In the after-meeting a number professed Christ.

Afternoon Meeting.

An afternoon meeting in the evangelistic campaign was held Tuesday at Trinity Methodist Episcopal church with a good attendance to hear the excellent sermon preached by Rev. C. H. Hicketts. The opening session was conducted by Arthur L.
Herring, and prayer was offered by C. H. Hicketts. The subject was reminded the fine solo number, "Come Ye Yourselves Apart and Rest awhile."

From the 22 Psalm Rev. Mr. Cunningham made the following words: The righteous shall flourish as the palm tree for his text, clearly and convincingly making to see people of the palm tree and the Christian. The palm tree, he said, first indicates moisture, and wherever you find a Christian you should find moisture. He is planted by the rivers of water, one who can not live without the refreshing streams of divine grace, and one who should indicate the presence of God.

The Christian has no business to be anywhere that people following him should find they are going away from the waters of salvation.
The Christian ought to invite people, just as the palm tree is an invitation, and then the Christian ought to be able to supply. True it is that Jesus is the water of life and the source of all truth, but he says in his own word that his people are the water, and he says through which the grace of God flows out to the world. The palm tree is always upright, growing up towards heaven, and the Christian ought to be the same. The Christian grows when the weights are removed.
The Christian ought to be straight.
The world is crooked, but the Christian, to be morally, religiously and spiritually, to be a Christian means to be straight.

As the leaves of the palm tree and its fruits are near heaven, so the Christian needs to be. We need tall men, spiritually and morally, moral shepherds, with their heads near God and heaven. It is also a trait of the palm tree that it is most fruitful in old age. There is no dearth in the Bible, but when a man gets less and less tied to the world, and the shining light which shines more and more unto the perfect day. The nearer you come to the borderland the more you ought to be like the palm tree, the king whom you are so soon to meet.
The palm tree also presents the lesson of extreme modesty, for the varied uses to which it can be put and it has no parasites. The word of God should be hid in the Christian's heart as a defense against the besetting sins and parasites.

And one lesson most important that the palm tree presents is that it is ever green. When everyone is so permeated that stays and lasts, not of the effervescent and spasmodic kind.
We are too apt to be creatures of our moods, and the palm tree teaches us to be ever green. Finally this tree is a type of beauty. Jesus is the one who has lived, and it is God's desire to have our lives beautiful in the highest sense, drawing close to him.
The palm tree, he said, is the most faithful lived, and it is God's desire

attention to making concrete blocks of which the house will be made. Mr.
Bolduc has about 800 made already, but as nearly 2,000 will be needed, he has plenty of work to keep busy during the winter months. Maxey Steer is assisting Mr. Bolduc. The building will be 20 ft. 7 in. and will contain four flats. It will have a slate roof.

A JOYFUL PASTIME

It's Really a Pleasure to Cure Catarrh by Breathing Hyomei.

It isn't a pleasure to saturate your stomach with vile nostrums or to stroke the tender membrane of the nose and throat with disagreeable sprays and douches.

But strange to say there are a few thousand people who do not keep abreast of the times who are hoping against hope that these ancient methods will rid them of catarrh.

If the readers of The Bulletin who suffer from catarrh want to banish this vile and disgusting disease forever, use a few drops from the bottle into the inhaler and breathe it in.
As it passes over the membrane and into the lungs with the air you breathe it soothes the raw membrane and kills the catarrh germs. Don't experiment longer. Leading druggists everywhere sell Hyomei for catarrh, coughs, colds, bronchitis, etc. Drop a postal for our free book, "Bouth's Family Hygiene, Bouth's Hyomei Co., Buffalo, N. Y."

MIC-NA

ach, belching, and cures all stomach diseases of money back. Large box of tablets 50 cents. Druggists in all towns.

and will be fitted with modern conveniences.

PERSONALS.
Mrs. Herbert Watson of Putnam
Hill is visiting her daughter, Mrs.
George G. Grant.

Mrs. Louis Moreau of Central Falls, R. I., is in town to attend the funeral of her sister, Mrs. Henry Depathy.

There was a large attendance at the First Congregational church Tuesday afternoon to hear Dr. Stough. The opening song service was directed by Mr. Spooner. Miss Louise Pratt sang "My Love to Thee, O Christ." Dr.
Stough took for his text "Whatever we shall ask the Father in my name." He said, "The whatsoever of Christ are not so generously accepted as the whosoever of the Father. The Christian ought to be a man of prayer and achievement."

"The extreme lordship of Christ should be acknowledged. One of the hopes in God is through the mediatorship of Jesus Christ. Until we mention the name of Jesus there is chaos in the spiritual realm. As you read the names on the tablet of the good and great, who once trod these streets, and lives they lived come back, their lives of self-denial, industry and achievement. The union of Christ with His friends carries with it immense possibilities. The Father sent me, so I send you."

"The church takes Christ's place in ministering to a sinful world. It gives us an eternal life. We are lifted out of our sinful conduct into the adoption of children. Begin to live as children of God that the kingdom of this world may become the kingdom of Christ."
